JOB DESCRIPTION

Assistant or Associate Professor in Primary Care

Reports to: Associate Dean of Clinical Sciences

Classification: Full-time Faculty; Exempt

Job Summary: The Alabama College of Osteopathic Medicine (ACOM) is now recruiting a physician for a full-time Assistant/Associate Professor in Primary Care. The position includes teaching osteopathic medical students throughout our innovative, interdisciplinary, four-year curriculum. Clinical faculty teach first- and second-year students in the classroom (including team teaching with Basic Science faculty) and in clinical skills labs. Course leadership is expected. Clinical faculty may also oversee clinical clerkship curriculum for the third- and fourth-year students. One day per week of clinical practice is encouraged as well.

Required Qualifications:

- D.O./M.D. degree
- Board certification by the appropriate AOA or ACGME specialty board
- Eligibility for licensure in Alabama
- Minimum of five years' experience in clinical medicine, as well as residency/academic medicine teaching and leadership
- Proficiency in Osteopathic Manipulative or Neuromuscular Medicine strongly preferred.

Review of applications will begin immediately.

Applicants may submit a cover letter addressing qualifications for the position and curriculum vitae to: Heath Parker, DO, Associate Dean of Clinical Sciences at hparker@acom.edu; or submit an online application for employment, cover letter addressing qualifications for the position and curriculum vitae or resume at: <https://pm.healthcaresource.com/cs/samc/#/job/15300>. ACOM does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, sex, gender, sexual orientation, religion or creed, national or ethnic origin, or disability in its programs, activities, hiring or the admission of students. This policy applies in recruitment and admission of students, employment of faculty and staff, and scholarship and loan programs. This policy is also followed in the operation of all other programs, activities and services of the College. ACOM is proud to be a tobacco-free and drug-free campus.

ACOM MISSION

The Alabama College of Osteopathic Medicine will provide quality, learner-centered osteopathic education, research, and service, while promoting graduate medical education, with emphasis on patient-centered, team-based primary care to serve the medically underserved areas of Alabama, the Tri-State area and the nation.
